

Alun Branigan

Partner
South East Asia

Alun is responsible for Actis's business in South East Asia. He sits on the investment committees for South East Asia and China. Alun joined Actis in 2002, and has managed and completed the exit from PRPOL our largest investment in the region. He also previously worked with the China team and with Globeleq.

Before joining, he worked for Dresdner Kleinwort Wasserstein, where he specialised in Asian investment banking. He held a variety of posts before becoming a Managing Director and Head of Investment Banking Asia (ex Japan). He has lived in the region since 1994.

He has a degree in politics from Lancaster University.