

Murray Grant

Partner
Africa

Murray is responsible for managing Actis's operations in North Africa and the London-based team of sector specialists. He continues to be involved across Africa through a range of investments and associations, covering telecommunications, financial services, mining and oil and gas.

Murray joined Actis in 2001 following a 13 year investment career with 3i Group plc. There he worked on a diverse range of investments in over 300 businesses across a range of industry sectors. Prior to working at 3i, Murray spent four years in the construction industry working on large infrastructure projects in Africa, Australia and Papua New Guinea. These projects were broadly split between the mining and power sectors.

Murray is a Director of Rashidi El Mizan (Egypt), Flamingo Holdings (Kenya), Starcomms (Nigeria) and Candax (Canada). He previously served on the boards of Capital Alliance (Nigeria) and Persianas Holdings (Nigeria).

Murray has an MBA from London Business School and a BSc in engineering from Edinburgh University.
