

Steven Enderby

Partner
South Asia

Steven is based in Delhi and is a member of the investment committee for South Asia. He has a particular focus on buyouts having initiated and developed our strategy in this area which has resulted in Actis being one of the leading players in the Indian buyout market. Steven joined Actis in 1990 and has been involved in more than 40 investments across a broad range of sectors and investment types.

All of his experience has been in the South Asian and African markets including 11 years in South Asia raising a venture fund and establishing Actis's presence in Sri Lanka.

Steven has a degree in Economics from Queens University, Belfast and is a qualified accountant.